GATCHINA

The beautiful and comfortable town Gatchina is situated about 45 kilometers away from St. Petersburg. The land around this town always attracted people with its beauty - the strange current of the river between two low hills, little lakes, groves and wood, set of springs and magnificent limpid Silver Lake. The palace is the center of architectural ensemble of Gatchina built as a lonesome castle it stands high above a silent and smooth surface of water and dominates the landscape. Being so huge and comprising 10 towers, limestone walls, and underground tunnel which leads to the lake, it has nothing in common with other royal country residences. The wild nature was transformed into fashionable landscape in English style due to the work of gardeners and different craftsmen.
